26 On October 19, 2011, at 8:30 a.m., this case came before the above captioned Court on 27 Plaintiffs' and the Class' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Proposed Class Action Settlement
28 ("Preliminary Approval Motion"). The Court, having reviewed the Preliminary Approval Motion

09090909

1 and all documents filed in support thereof, including the Settlement Agreement and its exhibits
2 entered into between the Plaintiffs and Defendant Ticketmaster (“the Settlement Agreement”), and
3 having considered oral argument at the hearing, all parties being present, for the reasons stated on 4 the record on October 19, 2011, hereby ORDERS that:

- 5 1. The Court has conducted a preliminary evaluation of the fairness, reasonableness, and 6 adequacy of the proposed Settlement. The Court finds that the Settlement Agreement is the 7 product of informed, arm’s-length negotiations; has no obvious deficiencies; and falls within 8 the range of reasonableness potentially meriting final approval. The Court therefore
9 GRANTS preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement, subject to further consideration
10 at the Final Approval Hearing of the Settlement Agreement as described below.
- 11 2. For settlement purposes only, the Court hereby amends the Class Certification Order of 12 September 27, 2010, to the revised definition, as set forth in Paragraph 1.2 of the Settlement
13 Agreement, to be as follows: “all persons who placed ticket orders from Ticketmaster using 14 the Website during the period from October 21, 1999, through October 19, 2011, the date of 15 the Preliminary Approval Hearing (the “Class Period”), paid money to Ticketmaster for an 16 OPF (which was not refunded), and were residents of the fifty United States at the time of the 17 purchase, including persons who placed, and then cancelled, a ticket order without obtaining 18 a full refund of the OPF. Excluded from the Class are (a) Defendant, (b) any entities in 19 which Defendant has a controlling interest or which have a controlling interest in Defendant,
20 (c) the officers, directors, employees, affiliates, and attorneys of Defendant, or (d) any 21 employee or officer of the Court or their immediate family members. Also excluded from 22 the Class are those persons who timely and validly requested exclusion from the Class
23 pursuant to the prior class notice sent to the Class following the Court’s September 27, 2010
24 class certification order, as identified on the list attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement
25 Agreement.”
- 26 3. The UPS Subclass shall consist of all Class members who paid for UPS Delivery of their 27 tickets.
- 28

- 1 4. The Court finds that the class notice procedure described in Paragraph 7.2 of the Settlement
2 Agreement and Exhibits C and D thereto will fairly and adequately satisfy the requirements
3 of due process under the constitutions of both the United States and California, and the 4 requirements of California Rules of Court 3.769 and 3.770, and any other applicable law.
5 The Court finds that the proposed notice:
- 6 (a) Constitutes the best practicable notice to Class members under the circumstances of 7 this action;
 - 8 (b) Constitutes notice that is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise
9 Class members of (i) the pendency of this action, (ii) their right to exclude themselves
10 from the Class and the proposed settlement, (iii) their right to object to any aspect of 11 the proposed settlement, (iv) their right to appear at the final fairness hearing if they
12 do not exclude themselves from the Class, and (v) the binding effect of the Orders
13 and Judgment in this action on all persons who do not request exclusion from the 14 Class.
- 15 5. The Court directs that notice of the Settlement Agreement and final fairness hearing, and of 16 the Class members' right to object or to request exclusion from the Class be given to the 17 Class members as follows in a form substantially similar to Exhibit-1 to this Order (e-mail 18 notice) and Exhibit-2 to this Order (publication notice). Such notice shall be given by the 19 means specified in Paragraphs 7.2(a)-(c) of the Settlement Agreement (i.e., via e-mail to 20 Class members, publication in USA Today, and website notice at 21 www.ticketfeelitigation.com). Notice and administration of the exclusion requests (opt-outs)
22 shall be handled by the Claims Administrator, and shall be completed on or before December 23 19, 2011.
- 24 6. The Court appoints The Garden City Group, Inc. as the Claims Administrator. The Claims
25 Administrator will have the responsibilities as identified in Paragraphs 7.1-7.3 of the 26 Settlement Agreement
- 27 7. The Court hereby sets the following schedule and directs the Parties to insert the applicable

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA - COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

CURT SCHLESINGER and PETER LO RE,) No. BC304565 on behalf themselves and the Class,)
v.) NOTICE OF PROPOSED TICKETMASTER, a Delaware Corporation,) SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION

This proposed settlement (“Settlement”) is on behalf of a nationwide class of consumers (the “Class”) who (1) purchased tickets on Ticketmaster’s website, www.ticketmaster.com (“the Website”) between October 21, 1999 and October 19, 2011 (the “Class Period”), (2) paid money to Defendant Ticketmaster for an Order Processing Fee (“OPF”) that was not refunded, (3) did not and do not opt-out of the Class, and (4) were residents of one of the fifty United States at the time of their purchase. Excluded from the Class are (a) Ticketmaster, (b) any entities in which Ticketmaster has a controlling interest or which have a controlling interest in Ticketmaster, (c) the officers, directors, employees, affiliates, and attorneys of Ticketmaster, or (d) any employee or officer of the Court or their immediate family members.

The proposed Settlement is also on behalf of a nationwide subclass (the “UPS Subclass”) of all Class Members who paid a delivery price for expedited delivery of their tickets via UPS (the “Delivery Price”).

The Class asserts claims that Ticketmaster’s OPF is excessive and deceptive. The UPS Subclass asserts claims that Ticketmaster’s UPS delivery charges are excessive and deceptive.

If you are a member of the Class and do not opt out of this proposed Settlement as set forth below, the Settlement will resolve your claims if approved by the Court.

On May 29, 2012 at 8:30 a.m., there will be a Final Approval hearing for the Court to determine whether to approve the settlement described below. The hearing will be held before Judge Kenneth R. Freeman, in Department 64 of the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles, located at 111 North Hill Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The proposed Settlement will provide a combination of benefits to the Class and UPS Subclass. Additionally, Lead Class counsel (identified below) will apply for up to $16.5 million in attorneys’ fees and expense reimbursements to counsel for the class and for an incentive award of $20,000 to each of the class representatives. Ticketmaster has agreed not to oppose that request and the Court will decide how much to award to Class counsel and the class representatives. The specific terms of the settlement are described in a Settlement Agreement and Release. This Notice does not change the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and is intended as a short summary of that document, which will be made available for your review on the Notice Website as described below. In the event of any conflict between this document and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the terms of the Settlement Agreement will govern.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS & OPTIONS¹

¹You are not entitled to any benefits under this Settlement if you have been convicted of felonies pertaining to the purchase of tickets over Ticketmaster’s Website or have used “bots” or other software

(DETAILED DESCRIPTION FOLLOWS)

OPF CLAIMS – ALL CLASS MEMBERS	RECEIVE TICKETMASTER CREDITS	If you take no action, and the settlement is approved by the Court, you will automatically receive, via email at the most recent email address associated with your purchases on Ticketmaster.com, discount codes (“Codes”) which can be used for future purchases for U.S. events from Ticketmaster’s Website (except for events at venues owned or operated by AEG as set forth in the Settlement Agreement). For each transaction that you made during the Class Period, you will receive one code via email for a $ 1.50 discount, up to a maximum of 17 codes. This does not include the additional benefits, for the UPS Subclass members, which are described below. The Codes may be combined up to a maximum of two credits ($3.00) that may be applied on future transactions as described above. The Codes are non-transferable, expire 48 months from distribution, and may be redeemed only for purchases made using the email address to which they were sent (or an updated address provided to the Claims Administrator or Ticketmaster and verified as belonging to the Class Member).
UPS SUBCLASS MEMBERS	RECEIVE ADDITIONAL CREDITS FOR UPS OR OTHER OVERNIGHT SHIPPING (IF AVAILABLE)	If you are a member of the UPS Subclass, you will be entitled to additional relief under the Settlement. These UPS Codes may not be combined, and only one UPS Code may be used per transaction. However, this benefit may be used for a ticket order together with the OPF Code described above. The UPS Codes are non-transferable, expire 48 months after they are first usable, and may be redeemed only for purchases made using the email address to which they were sent (or an updated address provided to the Claims Administrator or Ticketmaster and verified as belonging to the Class Member).

You may object to or oppose any aspect of the settlement, including the relief provided to the Class or UPS Subclass and/or the attorneys fees and expenses and/or the incentive award requested for the Plaintiffs who brought this suit. In order for any objection to be considered, you must file a written statement with the Court, and provide a copy to Lead Class Counsel and Ticketmaster’s Counsel at the addresses listed herein, by February 16, 2012. Box 9731 Dublin, OH 43017-5631 Email: ticketfeelitigation@gcginc.com If you do not exclude yourself, you will be represented as a member of the Class and UPS Subclass, as applicable, by Lead Class Counsel who are identified below and have been appointed by the Court to serve as class counsel. You will also release all claims against Ticketmaster as summarized below and as set forth in detail in the Settlement Agreement.

1. WHAT THIS CASE IS ABOUT:

Plaintiffs have alleged that Ticketmaster deceived and misled customers by representing that the Delivery Price was a pass-through of the amount that UPS charged Ticketmaster for that delivery and that Ticketmaster's OPF was also deceptive and misleading in that it did not actually represent Ticketmaster's costs in processing orders but rather was a profit generator which Ticketmaster required customers to pay.

Ticketmaster denied all of these allegations, and has defended this litigation for the past eight years. In addition to denying the merits of Plaintiffs' claims, Ticketmaster opposed Plaintiffs' request that the Court certify this case as a class action.

On February 5, 2010, the Court certified the case as a class action only on behalf of California residents who purchased tickets from the Website, including a subclass of consumers who also purchased UPS delivery for those tickets. Plaintiffs appealed that decision, to the extent the Court did not include consumers residing outside of California. In September, 2010, the Appellate Court ordered that the case should be certified as a nationwide class action, and the trial court thereafter issued an Order certifying a nationwide class covering purchases made from the Website from October 21, 1999 through May 31, 2010.. In October 2010, pursuant to Court Order, Notice was sent via email, and published in the USA Today, advising members of the foregoing class of the certification and of their opportunity to opt-out of this case. Accordingly, this case is proceeding as a class action on behalf of that class. The class also has been expanded, by stipulation of the parties and order of the court, for purposes of this Settlement only, to include all consumers who (1) purchased tickets on Ticketmaster's website from June 1, 2010 through October 19, 2011, (2) paid money to Ticketmaster for an OPF that was not refunded, (3) did not and do not opt-out of the class, and (4) were residents of one of the fifty United States at the time of their purchase.

2. WHY THIS NOTICE IS BEING PROVIDED TO YOU:

After several mediation sessions before an impartial mediator, the parties have reached the proposed Settlement for this case on behalf of themselves and all Class Members and UPS Subclass Members. If you have received this notice by email, that is because Ticketmaster's records reflect that you are a member of the Class, and some members of the Class also are members of the UPS Subclass. The purpose of this notice is to inform you of the terms of the Settlement the benefits available to you under it, how this lawsuit and the Settlement may affect your legal rights, important upcoming deadlines relating to the Settlement, and the steps you must take if you want to object to or opt out of the Settlement.

3. SETTLEMENT TERMS: If the Court approves the settlement, it will provide the following:

A. Monetary Benefits To Class Members.

(a) Class.

Each Class Member who (i) has an eligible claim, (ii) has not been convicted of a felony pertaining to his/her purchases of tickets over the Website and certifies that he/she has not been so convicted and also certifies that he/she did not use computer "bots" or other software to disguise his/her true identity and/or avoid the tickets per transaction limits on the Website, and (iii) has not filed a timely opt-out, as applicable, shall receive the following benefits: a code ("Code") for each purchase transaction (i.e. per order, not per ticket) entered into from the Website during the Class Period, (up to a maximum of 17 transactions/codes) entitling each Class Member to a credit in the amount of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per transaction which will be deducted from future purchases from Ticketmaster on the Website for events occurring at venues located in the United States (excluding events at venues owned and operated by AEG). The Codes may be combined, up to a maximum of two credits totaling three dollars ($3.00). The Codes are non-transferable.

(b) UPS Subclass.

Each UPS Subclass Member who (i) has an eligible claim, (ii) has not been convicted of a felony pertaining to his/her purchases of tickets over the Website and certifies that he/she has not been so convicted and also certifies that he/she did not use computer "bots" or other software to disguise his/her true identity and/or avoid the tickets per transaction limits on the Website, and (iii) has not filed a timely opt-out, as applicable, will receive the following benefits (unless the payments you made for UPS already were refunded - for example, where you cancelled your purchase order on the same day you made the purchase order): for each purchase up to 17 transactions (per order, not per ticket) made over the Website during the Class Period, a credit in the form of a code (or codes) e-mailed to the UPS Subclass Member for five dollars ($5.00) off the Delivery Price on subsequent purchases from Ticketmaster on the Website of tickets that are shipped via UPS for events occurring at venues located in the United States (but excluding events at AEG owned and operated venues). These codes cannot be combined or aggregated (i.e. only one code may be used per order) and are non-transferable. A UPS Code may be combined with a ticket purchase Code, however.

(c) Issuance of Codes. Ticketmaster (or, at Ticketmaster's election, the Claims Administrator) will send the codes to Class and UPS Subclass Members at the last-known e-mail address in Ticketmaster's database within thirty (30) days after Final Approval² but in no case prior to August 28, 2012, with instructions that they may be redeemed over the next forty-eight (48) months.

(d) Limitations on Redemption of Codes. Codes may be redeemed up to 48 months after distribution, at which time they will automatically expire. Codes may only be redeemed through the e-mail account to which they were sent unless the e-mail account is updated and verified (by Ticketmaster or the Claims Administrator) to belong to the same member of the Class or UPS Subclass, as applicable.

(e) Guaranteed Redemption Amount/Charitable Contributions. In the event that the minimum aggregate value of the OPF and UPS credit benefits redeemed in any given year during the forty-eight (48) month redemption period is less than $11.25 million, Ticketmaster shall make charitable contributions in amounts equaling the difference between $11.25 million and the aggregate value of the redeemed credit benefits that year. The aggregate guaranteed minimum redemption/cy pres amount for the settlement is $45 million. The charitable payments shall be made in the form of a combination of cash and tickets provided free of charge to appropriate charities, on the terms set forth in detail in the Settlement Agreement.

B. Non-Economic Settlement Terms And Benefits To Class Members.

1. Administrative Fees. Ticketmaster will pay the fees and costs charged by the Claims Administrator for administering the Settlement.

2. Website Changes. Ticketmaster has agreed to change its Website to add disclosures clarifying that Ticketmaster's OPF may include a profit and is not limited to its order processing costs, and that its Delivery Price for expedited delivery via UPS may include a profit to Ticketmaster and is not the same as what UPS charges Ticketmaster. The language of the changes to the Website has been left to Ticketmaster's reasonable discretion and may be changed again by Ticketmaster in the future to suit its business needs.

C. Release of Claims. The complete release is contained in the Settlement Agreement. In summary, if the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, you will be deemed to have fully and finally released and discharged Defendant Ticketmaster and its related entities from any and all claims relating in any manner to the allegations made in connection with the claims alleged by Plaintiffs in this case. If you want more details about the scope of the release, you should read the Settlement Agreement which is posted on the Notice Website.

The release also covers any and all claims for attorneys' fees, costs or disbursements incurred by Lead Class Counsel or any other attorneys for services rendered or value provided to the Class or the UPS Subclass. Nothing in the release precludes any action to enforce the terms of the Settlement Agreement. Insofar as this release extends to venues, the Released Claims shall not extend to any claims relating to the Face Value of Tickets (as defined in the Settlement Agreement). The Release also does not extend to any claims based on a breach of this Agreement.

² "Final Approval" shall be five (5) days after the date that an Order by the Court granting final approval of this settlement becomes non-appealable. "Non-appealable" shall mean that no party, including objectors, if any, has a right to appeal to, or seek reconsideration in, the California Court of Appeal, the California Supreme Court, or the U.S. Supreme Court or, to the extent any appeals have been filed, they have been resolved or exhausted.

D. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. You will not be required to pay any attorneys' fees or costs from your share of the Settlement. Lead Class Counsel will file with the Court an application (the "Fee Motion") in this action for an award of up to fifteen million US dollars ($15,000,000) in attorneys' fees, which, if awarded by the Court, would represent a "multiplier" of approximately 2.5 times Lead Class Counsel's "lodestar." The lodestar is computed by taking the amount of time spent working on this case, multiplied by Lead Class Counsel's hourly rates. Lead Class Counsel has informed the Court that its lodestar is approximately $6.5 million, from the beginning of this case in 2003 through September 26, 2011. Lead Class Counsel will also seek to recover the amount of costs and expenses they have incurred, up to a cap of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000). The parties have agreed that any award of fees and costs shall not exceed those amounts and that Ticketmaster will pay any amounts, up to these limits, awarded by the Court in addition to the relief provided to the Class.

E. Incentive Payment To Named Plaintiffs. In connection with the Final Approval hearing, Plaintiffs' counsel will ask the Court to award an incentive award not to exceed $20,000 each for the two named Plaintiffs who brought this case, were certified as class representatives, and who have been required to respond to substantial discovery requests from Ticketmaster over the past eight years. If the Court approves the request, any attorneys' fees awarded by the Court will be reduced by the amount of the incentive award. The incentive award will not reduce any of the benefits to the Class members.

If you purchased tickets on Ticketmaster's website www.ticketmaster.com (the "Website") between October 21, 1999 and October 19, 2011 (the "Class Period"), and did not previously opt-out of the case, a proposed settlement will affect your rights, if approved by the Court.

There is a proposed settlement ("Settlement") on behalf of a nationwide class of consumers (the "Class") who purchased tickets from the Website during the Class Period. The Class asserts claims that Ticketmaster's Order Processing Fee ("OPF") is excessive and deceptive. The Court also certified a subclass (the "UPS Subclass") of consumers who paid for expedited delivery of their tickets via UPS (the "Delivery Price"). The UPS Subclass is asserting claims that Ticketmaster's Delivery Price is excessive and deceptive. Ticketmaster disputes each of Plaintiffs' claims.

Who is a Class Member? The case was previously certified as a class action. If you did not already opt-out of the class, you are a Class Member if you purchased tickets on the Website during the Class Period, paid money to Ticketmaster for an OPF that was not refunded, and were a resident of one of the fifty United States at the time of your purchase. You are also a UPS Subclass Member if you are a Class Member and paid a Delivery Price in connection with your purchase of tickets over the Website. If the Court approves the settlement you will be bound by its terms and will release your claims against Ticketmaster. Excluded from the Class and UPS Subclass are (a) Ticketmaster, (b) any entities in which Ticketmaster has a controlling interest or which have a controlling interest in Ticketmaster, (c) the officers, directors, employees, affiliates, and attorneys of Ticketmaster, or (d) any employee or officer of the Court or their immediate family members.

What are the benefits? The proposed Settlement will provide benefits to the Class and UPS Subclass as summarized below.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS & OPTIONS¹
(DETAILED DESCRIPTION FOLLOWS)

OPF CLAIMS - ALL CLASS MEMBERS	RECEIVE TICKETMASTER CREDITS	If you take no action, and the settlement is approved by the Court, you will automatically receive, via email at the address associated with your Ticketmaster account, discount codes ("Codes") which can be used for future purchases for U.S. events from Ticketmaster's Website (except for events at venues owned or operated by AEG as set forth in the Settlement Agreement). For each transaction that you made during the Class Period, you will receive one code via email for a $ 1.50 discount, up to a maximum of 17 codes. This does not include the additional benefits, for the UPS Subclass members, which are described below. The Codes may be combined up to a maximum of two credits ($3.00) that may be applied on future transactions as described above. The Codes are non-transferable, expire 48 months from distribution, and may be redeemed only for purchases made using the email address to which they were sent (or an updated address provided to the Claims Administrator or Ticketmaster and verified as belonging to the Class Member).

¹You are not entitled to any benefits under this Settlement if you have been convicted of felonies pertaining to the purchase of tickets over Ticketmaster's Website or have used "bots" or other software to disguise your true identity and/or avoid the "tickets per transaction" limits on the Website. You will be required to certify that you are not so disqualified at the point of purchase.

UPS SUBCLASS MEMBERS	RECEIVE ADDITIONAL CREDITS FOR UPS OR OTHER OVERNIGHT SHIPPING (IF AVAILABLE)	If you are a member of the UPS Subclass, you will be entitled to additional relief under the Settlement. Specifically, for each transaction you made using UPS delivery of your tickets (up to 17 transactions), you will receive one UPS code ("UPS Code") via email, for $5.00 off subsequent expedited delivery fees on purchases from Ticketmaster's Website (except for events at venues owned or operated by AEG as set forth in the Settlement Agreement) of tickets that are shipped via UPS or some other form of overnight delivery that Ticketmaster may offer in the future. These UPS Codes may not be combined, and only one UPS Code may be used per transaction. However, this benefit may be used for a ticket order together with the OPF Code described above. The UPS Codes are non-transferable, expire 48 months after they are first usable, and may be redeemed only for purchases made using the email address to which they were sent (or an updated address provided to the Claims Administrator or Ticketmaster and verified as belonging to the Class Member).
ALL CLASS MEMBERS	OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	You may file an objection and ask the Court not to approve the settlement. You may object to or oppose any aspect of the settlement, including the relief provided to the Class or UPS Subclass and/or the attorneys fees and expenses and/or the incentive award requested for the Plaintiffs who brought this suit. In order for any objection to be considered, you must file a written statement with the Court, and provide a copy to Lead Class Counsel and Ticketmaster's Counsel at the addresses listed herein, by February 16, 2012. You may submit an objection yourself or you may retain an attorney at your own expense to file an objection on your behalf.

ALL CLASS MEMBERS	OPT OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT	You do not need to take any action to enjoy the benefits of the Settlement, other than to meet the requirements for being a member of the Class and UPS Subclass, as applicable. If you elect to opt out and be excluded from the lawsuit, the Court will exclude you from the Class and UPS Subclass, as applicable, and you will not enjoy any benefits under this Settlement. If you do not wish to participate in the Settlement, you must say so in writing. Your written request to be excluded must include your name and email address. To be effective, the exclusions must be submitted on-line or mailed by February 16, 2012. An exclusion may be either completed on-line at www.ticketfeelitigation.com or be mailed in an envelope by U.S. Mail or sent via email to the Claims Administrator Garden City Group at the following addresses: Mail: Schlesinger v. Box 9731 Dublin, OH 43017-5631 Email: ticketfeelitigation@gcginc.com If you do not exclude yourself, you will be represented as a member of the Class and UPS Subclass, as applicable, by Lead Class Counsel who are identified below and have been appointed by the Court to serve as class counsel. You will also release all claims against Ticketmaster as summarized below and as set forth in detail in the Settlement Agreement.
